

	Bug Description	Expected	Actual
patient dashboard	Patient dashboard --> live appointment --> Reschedule ---> timezone is not displayed	Patient dashboard --> When rescheduling an appointment, the applicable time zone should be clearly displayed along with the location appointment time	Patient dashboard --> When rescheduling an appointment, the time zone is not displayed and its showing based on patient time zone.
patient dashboard	Patient dashboard --> appointment --> Once the scheduled appointment time has passed, the appointment is still displayed under Upcoming Appointments	Patient dashboard --> Once the appointment time has passed, the appointment should automatically move to the Past Appointment section and consider the appointment duration also.	Patient dashboard --> After the appointment time has passed, the appointment does not move to the Past Appointment section.
Practice location	practice location-->appointment --> missing reason --->while remove all the list of reason,minimum one reason will be show. after refresh removed in UI	in practice location , Missing Reason should be removed immediately without requiring a page refresh.	Practice Location, when the last Missing Reason is removed, it is not removed immediately. The removed reason disappears only after refreshing the page doctor dashboard	Practice --> practice locaton remove --> doctor dashboard --> Instead of "Onboarding Complete," it should display "Please complete the Practice Location."	When the Practice Location is removed, the Doctor Dashboard should display "Please complete the Practice Location" instead of "Onboarding Complete."	When the Practice Location is removed, "Onboarding Complete" is displayed on the Doctor Dashboard.
patient dashboard	In Patient Signup – Newly Resent OTP is incorrectly showing "OTP Expired" even when entered within the valid 30-second expiry time. OTP verification succeeds only after generating the OTP for the third time.	patient sign up --->The newly resent OTP should be successfully verified when entered within the valid 30-second expiry time and should not display "OTP Expired."	In Patient Signup, the newly resent OTP incorrectly displays "OTP Expired" even when the OTP is entered within the valid 30-second expiry time.
patient dashboard	After successfully adding a patient, when clicks the Edit button and enters an invalid location, the form still allows the to submit successfully.	Patient dashboard --> When an invalid location is entered, the system should display an appropriate validation error message and should not allow the form to be submitted until a valid location is provided.	Patient dashboard --> After successfully adding a patient, when clicking the Edit button and entering an invalid location, the form still allows the user to submit successfully.
patient dashboard	after successfully added associate member, then click the view/edit button it will open but not being fetched and display the location(city, zip) and address field.	Patient dashboard --> When clicking the View/Edit button, the previously saved Location (City, ZIP) and Address details should be automatically displayed in the respective fields.	Patient dashboard --> After successfully adding an Associate Member, when clicking the View/Edit button, the page opens, but the previously saved Location (City, ZIP) and Address details are not displayed in the respective fields.
patient dashboard	After successfully adding a pharmacy, when clicks the Edit button and enters an invalid location, the form still allows the to submit successfully.	Patient dashboard --> When an invalid location is entered, the system should display an appropriate validation error message and should not allow the form to be submitted until a valid location is provided.	Patient dashboard --> After successfully adding a pharmacy, when clicking the Edit button and entering an invalid location, the form still allows the user to submit successfully.
patient dashboard	In added emergency contact section if select a relation is 'child where insured has no financial responsibility' then cannot submit, the alert is 'Data too long for column 'Relation' at row 1'.	Patient dashboard --> The relation "Child where insured has no financial responsibility" should be accepted, and the emergency contact should be submitted successfully	Patient dashboard --> In the Added Emergency Contact section, when selecting the relation "Child where insured has no financial responsibility", the form cannot be submitted and displays the alert: "Data too long for column 'Relation' at row 1."
patient dashboard	after successfully added the add care giver, when clicks the Edit button and enters an invalid location, the form still allows the to submit successfully.	Patient dashboard --> When an invalid location is entered, the system should display an appropriate validation error message and should not allow the form to be submitted until a valid location is provided.	Patient dashboard --> After successfully adding a caregiver, when clicking the Edit button and entering an invalid location, the form still allows the user to submit successfully patient dashboard	Search Doctors for Appointment if given wrong location still come the doctor.	Patient dashboard --> add consulting doctor , book appointment -->When an incorrect or invalid location is entered, the system should not display doctors that do not match the entered location. An appropriate validation or "No doctors found" message should be displayed.	Patient dashboard --> add consulting doctor , book appointment -->When searching for a doctor for an appointment using an incorrect or invalid location, doctors are still displayed in the search results.

patient dashboard	In the patient dashboard The past appointment time will change	In the Patient Dashboard, the time of a past appointment should remain unchanged and should	In the Patient Dashboard, the time displayed for a past appointment changes unexpectedly.
Practice location	Practice location --> missing reason and cancel reason --> The reason added manually should be remove	The manually added Missing Reason or Cancel Reason should be removable successfully when the user chooses to remove it.	In Practice Location → Missing Reason and Cancel Reason, a reason added manually cannot be removed Practice location	Practice location --> appointment type --> edit --> When clicking the Submit button, a "Something went wrong" error message is displayed.	in practice location --> When clicking the Submit button after editing an Appointment Type, the changes should be saved successfully without displaying any error message.	In Practice Location → Appointment Type → Edit, when clicking the Submit button, a "Something went wrong" error message is displayed and the changes are not submitted successfully patient dashboard	If I cancel the upcoming appointment, then open the appointment details the reason is showing UUID format. not showing given cancel reason is "Not feeling well".	In the Patient Dashboard, Appointment Details should display the actual cancel reason provided by the user, such as "Not feeling well", instead of displaying the UUID.	In the Patient Dashboard, When an upcoming appointment is cancelled and the Appointment Details are opened, the cancel reason is displayed in UUID format instead of the actual reason provided. For example, "Not feeling well" is displayed as a UUID.
patient dashboard	Search Doctors for Appointment will come doctor detail without location.
patient dashboard	In add pharmacy the address field sometime allow to submit without letter and word.	In the Patient Dashboard, The Address field should require a valid address containing letters/words, and the form should not allow submission when the field is empty or contains invalid input.	In the Patient Dashboard, Add Pharmacy, the Address field sometimes allows the form to be submitted without entering any letters or valid words patient dashboard	In add pharmacy given the suggest location on location field, additionally if add any text it will allow to submit (eg..Upland, IN 46989hdhckjsckjscks)	Patient Dashboard -->After selecting a suggested location, the Location field should not allow additional invalid text to be appended. The system should validate the location and prevent submission if the entered location is invalid.	Patient Dashboard --> Add Pharmacy, after selecting a suggested location in the Location field, the user can append additional invalid text and still submit the form successfully. Example: "Upland, IN 46989hdhckjsckjscks" patient dashboard	In care giver given the suggest location on location field, additionally if add any text it will allow to submit (eg..Upland, IN 46989hdhckjsckjscks)	Patient Dashboard --> After selecting a suggested location, the Location field should not allow additional invalid text to be appended. The system should validate the location and prevent submission if the entered location is invalid.	Patient Dashboard --> Add Caregiver, after selecting a suggested location in the Location field, the user can append additional invalid text and still submit the form successfully. Example: "Upland, IN 46989hdhckjsckjscks" patient dashboard	same as Add new provider and edit profile given the suggest location on location field, additionally if add any text it will allow to submit (eg..Upland, IN 46989hdhckjsckjscks) patient dashboard	In add new provider Address 1 and Address 2 field is not accepting numbers.
patient dashboard	upcoming appointment list is not ordered by time.	Patient Dashboard --> Upcoming Appointment list should be displayed in chronological order, with the earliest upcoming appointment shown first.	Patient Dashboard --> Upcoming Appointment list is not displayed in chronological order based on the appointment time.
Practice	while practice module where ever enters an invalid location, the form still allows the to submit successfully.

Practice	after successfully added staff then phone number and email Id cannot editable.
Practice	add practice location successfully then removed. once deleted practice location email cannot use another time.	After deleting a Practice Location, the associated email address should be available for reuse when adding a new Practice Location.	After successfully adding a Practice Location and then deleting it, the email address associated with the deleted Practice Location cannot be used again to add a new Practice Location.
Practice	Email and Address Text Overflowing Outside the Border in Practice Dashboard.	practice dashboard --> The Email and Address text should remain within the designated border/container without overflowing. Long text should be properly wrapped or truncated.	Practice Dashboard, the Email and Address text overflows outside the designated border/container.
patient dashboard	live Appointment form --> Given Consent For Eligibility Check -NO --> insurance same --> upcoming appointment --> paynow button should be disabled	When Given Consent for Eligibility Check = No and the patient's insurance matches, the Pay Now button should be disabled in the Upcoming Appointment.	In the Live Appointment form, when Given Consent for Eligibility Check = No and the patient's insurance matches, the Pay Now button is enabled in the Upcoming Appointment.